IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 27, 1962

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

Several inconsistent and conflicting proposals have been made by the USSR within the last twenty-four hours, including the one just made public in Moscow. The proposal broadcast this morning involves the security of nations outside the Western Hemisphere. But it is the Western Hemisphere countries and they alone that are subject to the threat that has produced the current crisis -- the action of the Soviet Government in secretly introducing offensive weapons into Cuba. Work on these offensive weapons is still proceeding at a rapid pace. The first imperative must be to deal with this immediate threat, under which no sensible negotiation can proceed.

It is therefore the position of the United States that as an urgent preliminary to consideration of any proposals work on the Cuban bases must stop; offensive weapons must be rendered inoperable; and further shipment of offensive weapons to Cuba must cease -- all under effective international verification.

As to proposals concerning the security of nations outside this Hemisphere, the United States and its allies have long taken the lead in seeking properly inspected arms limitation, on both sides. These efforts can continue as soon as the present Soviet-created threat is ended.

Several inconsistent and conflicting proposals have been made by the USSR within the last 24 hours, including the one just made public at Moscow. ~~Some of these proposals~~ involve the security of nations outside the Western Hemisphere. But ~~it~~ is the Western Hemisphere countries and they alone ~~which~~ ^{[that are subject to the immediate threat} ^{which has produced the present crisis} ^[new] ~~an immediate threat!~~ and a growing one, from the missiles which ^[have secretly introducing offensive weapons into] the Soviets have ^{put} in Cuba and on which they are continuing work.

The first imperative must be to deal with the immediate threat under which no sensible negotiation can proceed.

The United States is accordingly notifying the USSR that as an urgent preliminary to consideration of any proposals work on the Cuban bases must stop ~~at once, the missiles already completed~~ ^[Offensive weapons] must be rendered inoperable, and further shipment of offensive weapons to Cuba must cease. ^[all under effective verification.]
